

Appendix

Appendix A: District-wise List of Cinema Halls

Note: This presents district-wise lists of single-screen cinema halls from six selected districts of West Bengal. Based on extensive fieldwork, archival research, and oral history interviews, every effort has been made to document all known cinema halls within each district. The districts included here were selected for their historical, cultural, economic, and socio-political significance in the context of West Bengal. Rather than being a representative sample, they offer an informed cross-section of the state's exhibition history. Since this compilation draws substantially on oral histories, personal memories, and scattered documentary sources, minor discrepancies or omissions may remain. In the absence of any comparable governmental or non-governmental documentation, this appendix represents one of the first systematic attempts to document these cinema halls and is intended as a reference for future research.
